NOTIFICATION.

The Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that the following shall be substituted for Rule 23-B, Part V, of the Ecclesiastical Rules published with the Department of Education Notification No. 5-C., dated the 2nd/5th December 1918 :—

23-B. Expenditure either in excess of that permissible under or not covered by the preceding rules, on the erection, alteration of, or additions to a church, or a building subsidiary thereto, whether the same be the property of Government or not, or on the repair of a church or a subsidiary building which is not the property of Government, may be sanctioned by the Government of India subject to a limit of Rs. 1,500 in the aggregate for any one church.

(2) Local Governments and Administrations and the Director General of Military Works Services have similar powers in regard to such alterations, additions and repairs (but not erection) subject to a limit of Rs. 500 in the aggregate for any one church.

Note.—The powers of local Governments have effect from 11th September 1910 in the case of additions and alterations to a Government Church ; and from 27th August 1918 in the case of additions, alterations and repairs to a church which is not the property of Government.

Local Governments may sanction expenditure up to Rs. 500 in the aggregate for any one church in either case even if the permissible grant had been exceeded prior to the dates mentioned above, irrespective of the amount of such excess.

H. SHARP,

Secretary to the Government of India.
